This fun song from Glasgow is a great one for getting children on their feet, moving around and acting out the characters. The dynamite never fails to raise a smile!

Jimmy's lost his jaurie

Doon by the Broomielaw

An' he's lost it doon the stankie

He's lost it doon the stankie
Doon by the Broomielaw

So he's gone and got a stretcher
He's gone and got a stretcher
He's gone and got a stretcher
Doon by the Broomielaw

But the stretcher couldnae reach it
The stretcher couldnae reach it
The stretcher couldnae reach it
Doon by the Broomielaw

So he's gone and got his Granny
He's gone and got his Granny
He's gone and got his Granny
Doon by the Broomielaw

And he shoved her doon the stankie
He shoved her doon the stankie
He shoved her doon the stankie
Doon by the Broomielaw

But his Granny couldnae reach it
His Granny couldnae reach it
His Granny couldnae reach it
Doon by the Broomielaw

So he's gone and got a polis
He's gone and got a polis
He's gone and got a polis
Doon by the Broomielaw

And he shoved him doon the stankie
He shoved him doon the stankie
He shoved him doon the stankie
Doon by the Broomielaw

But the polis couldnae reach it
The polis couldnae reach it
The polis couldnae reach it
Doon by the Broomielaw

So he's gone and got some dynamite
He's gone and got some dynamite
He's gone and got some dynamite
Doon by the Broomielaw

And he shoved it doon the stankie
He shoved it doon the stankie
He shoved it doon the stankie
Doon by the Broomielaw

Now he's blown up the stankie
He's blown up the stankie
He's blown up the stankie
Doon by the Broomielaw

And noo Jimmy's found his jaurie
