Lyrics

I think I know a man, I think his name is Fred
I think he goes to bed at night
With jelly on his head
Jelly on his head, jelly on his head
How can he sleep at night with jelly on his head?

I think I know a girl, I think her name is Grace
I think she goes to bed at night with fried egg on her face
Fried egg on her face, fried egg on her face
How can she sleep at night with fried egg on her face?

I think I know a lady, her name is Mrs Speirs
I think she goes to bed at night with ice cream in her ears
Ice cream in her ears, ice cream in her ears
How can she sleep at night with ice cream in her ears?

I think I know a boy, I think his name is Mike
I think he goes to bed at night and tries to ride a bike
Tries to ride a bike, tries to ride a bike
How can he sleep at night and try to ride a bike?

I think I know a girl, her name is Alison
I think she goes to bed at night and chews upon a bun
She chews upon a bun, she chews upon a bun
How can she sleep at night and chew upon a bun?

I think I know a boy, I think his name is John
I think he goes to bed at night with no pyjamas on
No pyjamas on (wool!), no pyjamas on (wool!)
How can he sleep at night with no pyjamas on?
